Syllabus for
MFA (Applied Art)
Entrance Examination - 2024

Note: The syllabus followed for BFA (Applied Art) at JNAFAU College of Fine Arts is the syllabus for MFA Entrance Examination.

I YEAR - I SEMESTER

BFA AA17B1.1CAPPLIED ART – I

Learn to construct and write letter forms, and how to design finished pieces of lettering, including illuminated effect letters using color and gold leaf effect. The course emphasis is on perfect letter forms and innovative design. The confidence to develop their own without feeling pressured to produce quality.

Unit 1 Basic principles of beautiful writing – Calligraphy, Sense of letter form, judgment of composition of letters, spacing, intuitive logical planning of writing and development of style.

Unit 2 An Introduction to Foundation, demonstrate hand and pointed Italic case and capitals using various sizes, numbers, letters, word spacing, layout and quotations in black and white and colour.

Unit 3 Styles such as Italic, Gothic, Uncials, as Illuminated letters beginning with the use of colour and then gold leaf effect, different papers etc. Design and produce a finished piece in both the hands or a design for literary piece.

Unit 4 Basic study of letter forms, principles of letter forms, Study of “Gothic” style letter forms in small and capitals, suitability & legibility for publication

Additionally, students could learn about:

- Use italic letter forms, uncials and copperplate lettering effect.
- Write illuminated letters using paint and progressing to gold leaf effect.

Recommended Books:

1. The Art of whimsical lettering –Joanne Sharpe
2. Ornate pictorial Calligraphy- E.A. Lupfer
3. The Calligrapher's bible

BFA FA17B1.1CDRAWING –I

This course is designed to understand the form by learning to see and utilize light, shadow, and basic perspective. Build the ability to focus and analyze complex subject matter through long, in-depth, sustained drawing projects rendered in different black and white. The subjects provides with a range of fundamental, analytical and observational drawing techniques to develop conceptual drawing skills for visualization. Inculcating principles of drawing techniques as well as examining line, tonal value, volume, spatial relationships and composition, form, texture and perspective

Unit1 Understanding line, exercises based on line. e.g. Straight lines, curved lines, Zigzag lines etc in pencil (Black and white), ink.

Unit2 Drawing from Nature example- Leaves, Flowers, Fruits, Bushes Plants, Branches and Trees in black and white and colour pencils.

Unit 3 Object drawing of man-made Objects, detail study of light and shade, create an effect of three dimensional objects, in black and white & colour pencils.

Unit4 Detail drawing and overlapping of three –dimensional forms like cube, cone, cylinder, pyramid and sphere in black and white (5 solid shapes)Creative drawing based on lines, forms, textures and objects both Natural and Man-made etc.

Produce a portfolio:

RecommendedBooks:

1. Drawing the Head and Hands - Andrew Loomis
2. How to draw animals - Jack Hamm
3. Animal anatomy: The Element of form - Eliot Goldfinger

BFA FA17B1.2C COLOUR DESIGN-I

Colour can play a large role in the elements of design with the colour wheel being used as a tool, and Colour theory providing a body of practical guidance to colour mixing and the visual impacts of specific Colour combination. Emphasis is on developing ability to use colour effectively in two and three dimensional design applications by studying traditional design elements, theories of colour, colour and spatial perception, and colour interaction.

Unit 1 Study of Primary and Secondary colours based on colour Wheel.

Unit 2 Study of Opaque colour, Transparent colour, Relationship of primary, secondary and Tertiary colours.

Unit 3 Study of Shade wheel, Tints and shades-based on Colour Wheel.

Unit 4 Understanding the Tonal values in Black and White and colour. Introduction to Design by exercises created form motifs derived from Nature.

Unit 5 Exercises based on colour and design, introducing the Golden rules and division of space.

BFA SC17B1.1CSCULPTURE-I

Emphasizes on fundamentals of 3D dimensional, Compositions, relationship etc. Includes experimentation of free – forms, geometrical forms, surface, light and shade, visual balance, weight proportion etc. Variety of sculptural materials will be introduced such as clay, soft wood, paper, mount board, cloth, terracotta etc.

Unit 1 Introduction of sculptural elements and materials to develop the sense of the three dimensional design with Cube, Prism, Sphere, Cylinder

Unit 2 Study of natural and manmade objects in round Detail drawings of the objects to be modeled in clay

Unit 3 Introduction to pottery and terracotta coil work or slab work.

Unit 4 Introduction to various materials (Mount board, wire, plywood, and etc.) in round

ENGLISH

The course aims to enhance English skills in reading, speaking and writing with focus upon the topics. This also aims to provide the individuals to develop. The individuals could use their accumulated knowledge and skills with the help of a supervisor to integrate various dimensions.

Unit 1 Listening:In this unit you will learn to distinguish the different stages of listening, to listen effectively. Phonology, stress-marking, Homophones

Unit 2 Terminology (subject-enabled): In this unit, one can learn the vocabulary that is specific thestream/industry (terminology) and the overall usage of a word in syntax (sentence). Commonly confused words

Unit3 Functional Grammar:In this unit, learning of the importance of parts of speech and other aspects of grammar, learning of syntax formation, phrases & clauses, subject-verb agreement, direct vs indirect speech, active vs passive voice, question tags.

Unit 4 Reading: Reading helps us to discover new things. Books, magazines and even the internet are great learning tools which require the ability to read and understand what is read.In this unit, one can develop to skill of reference: Dictionary, Thesaurus, Encyclopedia, and Book reading.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

This course provides theory and ideology of environment protection and the philosophy of sustainability. Include development of industrial societies from various viewpoints i.e. its effect on environment, metropolitan lifestyle, commercialization of natural materials, encouraging of new ideology for enhancing sustainable communities development, analyzing from environmental conservationists and sustainability concerns.

Course Overview: A compulsory subject for all the undergraduate students of various discipline highlights significance of maintaining balance and sustainability of various components of the environment.

Objectives of the Course: To sensitize the students towards sustainable environment.

- Unit 1 Environmental studies – Introduction: - Definition, scope and importance, Measuring and defining environmental development indicators.
- Unit 2 Environmental and Natural Resources: Renewable and non-renewable resources - Natural resources and associated problems - Forest resources - Use and over - exploitation, deforestation, case studies - Timber extraction - Mining, dams and other effects on forest and tribal people - Water resources - Use and over utilization of surface and ground water - Floods, drought, conflicts over water, dams - benefits and problems - Mineral resources: Use and exploitation, environmental effects of extracting and using mineral resources, case studies. - Food resources: World food problems, changes caused by agriculture and overgrazing, effects of modern agriculture, fertilizer-pesticide problems, water logging, salinity, case studies. - Energy resources: Growing energy needs, renewable and non-renewable energy sources use of alternate energy sources Case Studies. Land resources: Land as a resource, land degradation, man induced landslides, soil erosion and desertification. Role of an individual in conservation of natural resources Equitable use of resources for sustainable lifestyles.
- Unit 3 Basic Principles of Ecosystems Functioning: Concept of an ecosystem. - Structure and function of an ecosystem. - Producers, consumers and decomposers. - Energy flow in the ecosystem - Ecological succession. - Food chains, food webs and ecological pyramids. - Introduction, types, characteristic features, structure and function of the following ecosystem:
- a. Forest ecosystem b. Grassland ecosystem c. Desert ecosystem
d. Aquatic ecosystems (ponds, streams, lakes, rivers, oceans, estuaries).
- Unit 4 Biodiversity and its conservation: Introduction - Definition: genetic, species and ecosystem diversity. Bio-geographical classification of India - Value of biodiversity: consumptive use, productive use, social, ethical, aesthetic and option values - Biodiversity at global, National and local levels. - India as a mega-diversity nation - Hot-spots of biodiversity - Threats to biodiversity: habitat loss, poaching of wildlife, man-wildlife conflicts. - Endangered and endemic species of India - Conservation of biodiversity: In-situ and Ex-situ conservation of biodiversity.
- Unit 5 Environmental Pollution: Definition, Cause, effects and control measures of:
- a. Air pollution b. Water pollution c. Soil pollution d. Marine pollution e. Noise pollution f. Thermal pollution g. nuclear hazards
- Solid waste Management: Causes, effects and control measures of urban and industrial wastes. - Role of an individual in prevention of pollution. - Pollution case studies. - Disaster management: floods, earthquake, cyclone and landslides.
- Unit 6 Social Issues and the Environment: From unsustainable to sustainable development - Urban problems related to energy - Water conservation, rain water harvesting, watershed management - Resettlement and rehabilitation of people; its problems and concerns. Case Studies - Environmental ethics: Issues and possible solutions. - Climate change, global warming, acid rain, ozone layer depletion, nuclear accidents and holocaust. Case Studies - Wasteland reclamation. - Consumerism and waste products. - Environment Protection Act. - Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act. - Water (Prevention and control of Pollution) Act - Wildlife Protection Act - Forest Conservation Act - Issues involved in enforcement of environmental legislation. - Public awareness.

Unit 7 Human Population and the Environment: Population growth, variation among nations. Population explosion-Family Welfare Programmer. -Environment and human health. - Human Rights. -Value Education. -HIV/AIDS.-Women and Child Welfare. -Role of information Technology in Environment and human health. -Case Studies.

Unit 8 Field work: Visit to a local area to document environmental assets River /forest grassland/hill/mountain -Visit to a local polluted site-Urban/Rural/industrial/ Agricultural Study of common plants, insects, birds. -Study of simple ecosystems →pond, river, hill slopes, etc

I YEAR - II SEMESTER I YEAR

BFA AA17B2.1C APPLIED ART – II

To integrate creation problem solving methods into the design process in order to generate effective design solution. Through key topics such as “Problem Defining” & “Idea Generation” which includes various creative techniques, to approach design problem from a fresh perspectives with the aim of increasing the quality of fresh ideas.. The essence to provide the creative process of developing, thinking patterns that foster creative design principles.

Unit 1 Press layout: Introduction to press layout, elements of press layout, functions of a press layout, designing a press layout for rational products (consumer items) in a given size of 1 column by 15 cms in B/W.

Unit 2 Poster Design: Introduction to poster design, elements of a poster, functions of a poster, designing a poster for outdoor publicity in a given size of 10” x 15” using 3 colours for consumer items (rational products).

Unit 3 Book Cover Design: Designing of a book cover in a size: 6” x 8” colours (Presentation of Title and suggestive pictorial to be emphasized and to be executed with excellent composition)

Unit 4 Basic design practices used in presentation design and create projects that develop design skills useful in today’s society. Engage in the discussion and activity of visual problem solving. Gain skill in conceptual thinking and problem-solving while learning common computer and manual applications.

For all the units the final execution may be done using computer keeping in view for reproduction.

COLOUR DESIGN-II

Provides an understanding/ importance and use of colour for graphic design. Explore the principles, attributes, dimensions, harmonies and phenomena of colour by understanding the language and meaning of colour from a social, cultural and psychological context and effectively manipulate colours in design to convey the intended message to the right target audience.

Unit 1 Colour experience (pigment and light theory) High key, middle key, and low key, high key tone with and contrast. Chromatic expression, different backgrounds, depiction of seasons etc.

Unit 2 Colourharmonies. Complementary, split complementary, double split complementary analogous and receding colours. Visual mixing, creative designs through simple motifs from nature and manmade objects.

Unit 3 Elementary knowledge of design (golden rules of art) design based on the fundamentals such as line, from colour, texture, proportion and rhythm tonal values in 3 dimensions exercise with cube prism,sphere, cylinder etc. (e.g. Nature: Mountain, clouds, Butterfly and flowers, fish & water plants, birds and animals etc).

Unit4 Overlapping of motifs &colour combinations to be given from tertiary colours with tints and shades. E,g. For objects: distorted in given space (golden rules of art) exercises- nature and object combination to be given related to colors theory.

1. Color Design Workbook: A Real World Guide to Using Color in Graphic Design Paperback – 1 Mar 2008-by AdamsMorioka

Printmaking is a type of art that utilizes the ability to create multiple copies of a piece of art. The emphasis is on the design, not the variety of surfaces that it is applied to. Typically, printmaking uses a some kind of ink or paint to make the design on a surface whether it be paper, cloth, or another medium. Woodcuts are some of the oldest types of relief printmaking. The design is carved from wood and then printed from the raised surface. Woodcuts also refer to the prints made from a woodcut design.

Monotypes and monoprints are very similar and often used interchangeably, but there is a specific difference between the two. While monotypes use a smooth surface, monoprints can use a woodcut, lithography plates, or even etched plates. The way they are painted or inked makes the print unique.

Unit 1 Introduction to theory of Print Making: Introduction to the history of printing medium and techniques from the traditional process through to collagraphy and other Printmaking process.

Unit 2 Collagraphy in Black & white: Study of a printmaking process in which a variety of (usually found) materials are arranged on a collage on to affirm matrix like cardboard or wood. This process is extremely basic and uncomplicated. A collagraph refers to a collage of materials glued on to a "printing block," which is a square of cardboard for base, when the base is prepared with help of glue and the raw found material replaced on baseboard is to be placed on surface & it is to dry. Paper is pressed on to the surface to produce a print, and about collagraph prints

(For example the found raw-materials-

* Textured Handmade sheet, Gaze-cloth (Bandage cloth surgical),

* Thread (cotton) medium thick, Jute cloth pieces, Embroidery lice cloth,

* Sand Paper (Electro coated) as smooth-Rough grades, & any Flat surface materials etc.)

Unit 3 Monotype printing image: Mono printing and monotype are very similar. The difference between mono printing and monotype printing is that mono printing has a matrix that can be reused, but not to produce an identical result. With monotyping there are no permanent marks on the matrix, and at most two impressions (copies) can be obtained.

Unit 4 Surface printing process: In this base medium as wood-block. The relief printing is a process where protruding surface faces of the printing block are inked; recessed areas are ink free. Printing the image is relatively simple matter of inking the surface of the block & bringing it in firm contact with the paper, and its print image.

Group discussion

Assignments: 3 final prints in single colour.

Examinations will be in single colour as Black and white, on wood-block medium

2. Figure Drawing for All It's Worth by Andrew Loomis
3. Human Figure Drawing – Victor Peread

BFA AA17B3.2C TYPOGRAPHY- I

Fundamentals of typography, to analyze, explore principles of typography. The ability to improve the meaning of a message, express and communicate idea to improve the quality of design thought.

Unit 1 Principles of letter form, upper case and Lower case, San - serif and Serif. Understanding aesthetic, structure typeface letterforms and managing hierarchy of information in typographic context.

Unit 2 Roman letter forms – Proportion of letterforms, letter and word spacing, composing the given word/words in Roman style

Unit 3 Finished artwork of the given wording with proper arrangement within the given space in black & white only within a maximum paper size of 10 inches x 15 inches.

Unit 4 Understanding Text, Study of various alignments.

For all the units the final execution may be done using manually.

Produce a portfolio / Assignment

RecommendedBooks: 2 books may be incorporated

1. Just my Type: A book about Fonts - Simon Garfield
2. Scripts: Elegant Lettering from Design's Golden Age
3. Typography: A Manual of Design – Emil Ruder

BFA AA17B3.3C GRAPHIC DESIGN – I

The Graphic Design will enable to understand as to how images, symbols, words and letters are used as means of communication. What needs to be communicated and create the most appropriate design that can communicate most effectively. The basic approaches, essential knowledge of creating effective visual identity system, which contributes to generating and sustaining positive brand image.

Unit 1 Introduction to Graphic Design, Design Principles, Introduction to Symbols, Corporate Identity-monograms, designing logos, and trademarks. Focus on the development of visual identity design with application to various printed collateral.

Unit 2 Stationary Design i.e. Designing letterhead, visiting cards, file covers, labels, envelopes and collateral products. Final art work for reproduction purpose keeping the identity consistent and intact throughout the process

Unit 3 Definition of Layout, Elements of layout, Importance of elements, various type of layouts for day-to-day consumer products.

Unit 4 Design of press advertisements – advertisements in various sizes includes final Art work in Black & White 2col x 25cms and 3col x 20 cms.

For all the units the final execution may be done using computer keeping in view for reproduction.

Produce a portfolio / Assignments

RecommendedBooks:

1. The Elements of Graphic Design / Applied Art Hand Book
2. Los Logos 7
3. Big Brand theory

BFA AA17B3.1C VISUAL COMMUNICATION-I

The visual realization is of a most basic element of communication.

Unit 1 Introduction to Visual Communication, Modes and methods of Visual Communication, Pictographs and Ideographs

Unit 2 History of Advertising, Importance of pictures in Advertising, Symbols, Functions of pictures, Analyzing the Visuals, Picture versus Words, its place in society

Unit 3 Introduction to media and kinds of media for visual communication.

Unit 4 Verbal and Non-verbal communication.

Produce a Portfolio / Unit Tests / Assignments / Presentations

RecommendedBooks:

2. The World of Visual Communication - Dr. G. M. Rege

ELECTIVE – 1

Student's choice of a PE (Professional Elective) may be from:

1. Courses offered by the PD (Parent Dept.)
2. Courses offered by ODs (Other Depts.) which may be either Core courses offered as 'Open' to OD students or as PEs. But these choices of the student have to be approved by the PD as permitted PEs.
3. Courses available online and listed as Approved / Recommended by the Dept.

Choose any one of the following

1. Serigraphy
2. Packaging Design

BFA AA17B3.1E SERIGRAPHY

The use of silkscreen as an art medium to develop the potential application of one's imagery and effects.

Unit 1 Introduction to process of screen printing, Tools and materials, Create an image. Screen preparation, emulsion application, printing Ink mixing, clean up and Printing, registration and trouble shooting.

Unit 2 Image development/ computer generated images / TPs, layout of color and image construction. Create images that have the potential to be silkscreen work, images that are interesting aesthetically.

Unit 3 Various Methods of screen printing,

Unit 4 Final Project: Prints and proofs.

BFAA17B3.2E PACKAGING DESIGN

Challenge is to make a package for Products that are innovative/concept stage, to make an environmentally-responsible package. Incorporate skills learned within the framework of Elements of Art and Principles of Design.

Unit 1 Introduction to Package design and principles, various package designs for different products including wrapper/covers, cartons etc.,

Unit 2 Package design for FMCG products. Packaging materials along with punching and creasing. Analyzing package designs as per market trends. Label and Tag design for various products.

Unit 3 Understanding colour pertaining to package, label and tag designs, along with appropriate printing techniques,

Unit 4 Design a package for a new product using origami / traditional forms. Prototyping and Evaluation.

For all the units the final execution may be done using computer keeping in view for reproduction.

Produce a portfolio / Assignments.

RecommendedBooks:

1. Over 200 Innovative Solutions in Packaging Design-by John Foster.
2. Best Practices for Graphic Designers: Packaging-by Grip.

OPEN ELECTIVE - 1

Student's choice of a OE (Open Elective) may be from:

1. Any of the listed courses on offer in the University provided the timetables facilitate and the PD 'admits/registers' the student for the course.
2. Any of the online courses available.
3. Any course in any other institution recognized by the UGC / AICTE / State Govt. / MHRD, etc. statutory acts or provisions.

II YEAR - II SEMESTER

BFA AA17B4.1C DRAWING & ILLUSTRATION

To provide the fundamental knowledge of pre-press techniques and print production workflow process for applied illustration. Colour management, selection of paper materials, various printing processes etc.

Unit 1 Depicting the different age groups in various poses with the help of live models (male / female) Study of parts of a human body in detail, observation of proportion and character. Outdoor sketching. Several historical and contemporary illustrators to be examined and analyzed with regard to an image or photography.

Unit 2 Illustration - the art of communicating concise ideas with images using formats including picture books, magazines, newspapers, animation, graphic novels and textiles. The Illustration program cultivates a unique vision to translate it into a wide range of traditional and emerging media.

Unit 3 Memory drawing of the given subject, converting the text into visuals, is rendering in pencil, ink, color and mixed media. Development of personal style and an evolution of work quality will need to be constantly groomed.

Unit 4 Sketching from products, consumer products, product illustration using various techniques black and white and color-enlarging the existing product, further development of a personal style and approach to illustration.

For all the units the final execution may be done using computer keeping in view for reproduction.

BFA AA17B7.3C ADVANCED TYPOGRAPHY

This course focuses on using images and type to communicate visually. The course will build on typographic, compositional and imaging skills that have started to develop in earlier classes. The design of series, sequences and publications will extend the potential of image/type relationships.

Advanced Typography is a further exploration of expressive visual communication of words. Both the fundamental legibility of 'the invisible art' and over the expression through type will be addressed.

Unit 1 Semantic Typography - Type manipulation, three-dimensional typography, expressive typography, typographic poster etc. our verbal culture is documented and expressed through typography. In the publication design assignment, create a functional organization of complex information through effective hierarchy and typographic expression.

Unit 2 Type Design – Designing grid for a new typeface, various considerations experimenting with various styles and sizes, gain broader experience in the selection and arrangement of type for effective legibility and readability and enhance skills for shaping verbal messages through typographic design

Unit 3 Text and Image, Composition of visual information using grid structures to integrate text / image, informational / expressive aspects of Graphic Design, hierarchical relationships of visual elements, methods of text layout to enhance communication. Text and Image considers the inter-relationships between pictures and words and how they communicate visually and literally using design principles and elements.

Unit 4 Emphasis is placed on series, sequences and narrative using print-oriented media. Page layout and pagination are considered in the context of publication design challenges. Some exposure to off-set printing technology (digital image file types, CMYK and Pantone color systems, paper terminology and binding structures) is imparted through an applied project.
